SCOTTISH LETTER

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

EDINBURGE, December 22. DR. MICKICHAN'S CANDIDATURE WITEDRAWN.

The name of the Rev. Principal Mac kichan, Bombay, as a candidate for the Moderatorship of the U. F. Church has been withdrawn by his friends, who will not oppose the nomination of Principal Smith. In many quarters regret is expressed at this decision. Sir Andrew Fraser, in particular, in a centuries tried to crush our language, who continuent. In the present crisis, he says, "No one can doubt that the attitude of India has been due to what there has been of Christian principle and of rightcous. ness in our administration; and no student of her history can depy that this has been very largely due to the influence on the Government and peoples of India by the great missionaries, of whom Dr Mackichan is now our most distinguished representative, in the field." Further, "the future relation of the British Empire and India is one of the really large facts in the national situation. As the responsible Minister for India has declared in Parliament, this relation must be something quite new." It was in these circumstances, says Sir Andrew Fraser, that "the minds of many of use the distribution."

Scots Wha Hae'l The wind and the storm catch the air and spirit of the song; millions and millions of men and women are chanting forth the words; into the bag of the pipes have been woven the spirit and song of liberty and life for which the big, dauntless sonls of the world have striven through darkness, prison, and want, and when Germany and Germanism are dead and withered the soul-stirring hymns of the bagpipes shall echo and re-echo where the bagpipes shall echo and re-echo where the bagpipes shall echo and re-echo where Sir Andrew Fraser, in particular, in a as turned to Dr. Mackichan, a man well known in India as a great educationist and statesman, as well as an earnest Missionary." THE HAIGS OF BEMERSYDE. The appointment of Sir Douglas Haig to succeed Viscount French as the commander of the British Forces in Flanders has excited keen interest in Fifeshire and Berwickshire, the two Scottish counties with which the Haigs are most intimately associated. The family is an ancient one, and is the subject of one of the best known prophecies of Thomas the Rymour of Ercildoune (now Earlston), -

"Tyde, tyde what may betide, Haig shall be Haig of Bemerayde." The prophecy has been amply fulfilled, all through the centuries the Haigs have held the estate, the present laird being Liout. Col. Arthur Balfour-Haig. C.V.O., C.M.G., Extra Equerry to the King." The ·Haigs have figured largely in Scottlat wars "one fought at Baunockburn, after. wards being killed at Halidon Hill; his successor fell at Otterburn : & Haig lought at Saughieburn ; another died at Flodden ; and still another was at Ancrum Moor. Sir Douglas Haig comes of the Fifeshire branch of the Bomersyde Haige, and two other members of the family are at present with the colours. Lieut. Col. Oliver Haig of Ramorn'e, "Fife; son of Sir Douglas's brother, was in the 7th Hussars, and say service in South Africa as Sir John French' A.D.O. On succeeding to Ramornia became Major of the 3rd County of London Rough Riders, a second corps of which he raised after the war broke out. His brother, Company will be held at the Offices of Major John Haig, was an officer in the Messra Jardine Matheson & Co., Ltd. on Fife and Forfar Yeomanry for some years. Everything seemed to become transformed; your pack and your sticks fell by the roadside, you no longer carried your rifle, but were dancing and singing through space, every voice keeping step with the music. The war happened years before you were born, nobody ever died, but always sang and danced and larghed uproariously, made faces, stood on their heads, and shook hands with everybody they met. Andrew and I with our kilts and our bare legs no longer looked out of place. All the colours were different and mixed up, but anything which (by accident or design) got into the picture only made it more perfect.

A young subaltern of the Gordon Highlanders, just back from the Front on leave is telling a story about the small boys of Harre. It seems that the boys have learned that officers coming from fighting line generally possess a luncheon basket, and they therefore meet the trains and clamour for the baskets, in which they often find a tit-bit to eat. This young officer says that when he and three other Gordons strived at Havre their carriage door was surrounded by small boys. "There is nothing in the baskets," replie the officers; "we have esten it all up. Ah Scotsmen ! " was the scornful retort of one of the youngsters.

In a certain village in Fife a number of 'simple" folk are boarded out among the work-people. One of these was a man of m litary ago, and he was approached by the canvasser under the Derby scheme and asked whether he intended to enlist. "Me enlist!" he cried; "And a war ou De ve think I'm daft ?"

The constable said that he had a severe tussle with the defendant and would have been unable to hold him but for the assistance of an Indian Constable.

Defendant's record was an interesting one. He had been apprehended on various charges, including one of unlawful postession, and he had also the reputation f having assaulted three European constables previously.

A DANGEROUS CHARACTER.

"This man was arrested for the morder of a Chinese woman at Jardine's Barear, but the evidence is so slender the charge cannot be proceeded with," was the state, ment made by Inspector Gordon to Mr. Hazeland this morning, in a charge against . Chinese of being in possession of a dangerous weapon-a dagger. Defendant was. banished from Singapore some years ago and at that time he was automatically banished from Hongkong . He had been watched by the police for three days before he was apprehended. He struggled desparately with the constable who arrested Bink, and he would probably have got sway had it not been for the assistance of the Bank's constable. Defendant was fixed $250 or six months hard labour.

These schools fulfil a very useful part in giving a thorough grounding in both the Chinese and English Innguages so that those who intend to go on to Queen's College or to other secondary schools in the Colony may find that they are not handicapped when they got there, but are able to take their place in the DUNKELD, 11 last mile, i, 85, 1.18, 1.48, bligher classon. It is a very great pleasure to us all that Mr Ellis Kadoorie has been shie to come here to-day. It shows that what was to be seen, the use of filter bods he still takes a keen interest in this school which is only one of several that he has established in this part of the world. We hope that he will long continue to take the same keen interest in the work here. It is also a great thing to have Mr Lau Chu Pak present. He is of, the principal benefactors of school as his pame at the head of the board behind me shows. I paid visit to this school a short time ago and examined the work of several of classes, and afterwards I had the pleasure of listening in this hall to some of the dialogues which the boys had composed, including the dialogue to which headmaster has already referred. that I must confess I was a

One remark in the report by the Inspector on the work of this school I was very pleased to read, and that was the the discipline was good. That forms a very important part of your training, and the reputation of the school depends to a very great degree on the support you give to your meators. I would also like to congratulate in the only game you have the opportunity playing on the restricted available, namely volley-ball. I am glad to be able to tell you that the arrangements side of Hospital Road, which Mr Ellis Kadoorie has so generously given (appliance), are now complete, and that before long you will be able to use that ground for volley-ball or perhaps for

After commending the attention paid to physical drill and awimming, Mr Severn said he hoped many of them would go on to Queen's College or other secondary schools in the Colony, and later to the University. New Year. (Applicase).

Mr Severn was enitably, thanked the Hon Mr Lan Chu Pak and Mr R. E.

The Headmaster's Report stated :- This school was handed over to the Government of Hongkong by Mr Ellis Kadourle at the beginning of this year. There were 285 present in January. The numbers were small for several reasons :--(k), the fees had been raised ;

(2), the term was coming to an end (3), China New-Year was approaching (4), Classes 1. 2 and S were abolished and the European staff was cut down from 5 to 2.

In February there were only 207 boys on the roll. In March there were 443 boys on the roll, in May the echool had its maximum Enrolment 457 boys. The numbers have, as usual gradually decreased towards China of a name for H. In the upper classes the work was not up to a high standard, but the progress made in the lower classes spoke well for the raising of the standard in the future. In school work special stress has been laid upon the acquirement of a sounc and practical knowledge of the English language. This hall has been utilised every week for the giving of public recitations by the boys of all classes. Every week, too. during this term different masters have zivao object lessous before several clauses. they have been on the volley ball courts. Physical drill is one of the features of the school. Mr Mycock has made an excellent drill master and I believe that the school has become healthier and smarter as a result of his offerts. The lighter side of life has not been ne-

APPOINTMENT BY NOMINATION AT

SINGAPORE.

We take the following from the Sinjapore Free Press of the 19th inst:

"Mr. See Tiong Wah has been nouninated by His Excellency, the Governor as a member of the Singapore Municipal Commission." It is interesting and important to note that the nomination follows on the selection of Mr. See Tiong Wah by representative Chinese. The Chinese Chamey ber of Commerce and the Straits British Chinese Association were asked to send the pame of a gentleman for His Excellency's appointment. These bodies consulted the Chinese members of the Ratepayers' Association, and at a joint. meeting, Mr. See Tlong Wah was selected. These simple facts indicate the introduction of an intelligent and praiseworthy method which will be found by H. E. the Governor to relieve him largely from the somewhat ungrateful responsibility of having under the terms of the Municipal Ordinance to decide upon some persen whom it shall be his duty to nominate to s racant seat on the Municipal Commission. The old method of election, for which nobody could find a good word to say although it was a nominal conformance. to Municipal procedure within the United Kingdom, has been fortunately: supersoded by the safer method of pomination by H. E. the Governor.

THE SILVER MARKET.

LONDON, Jan. 27.

Messre. Montague's Report to day states that the good undertone the Silver market is again evinced by a rise in price to the highest point since August 10th, 1914. The upward movement was accelerated by the inclination of the Indian bazaars to cover recent sales, but the pace Bois Grenier, north-east of Armentieres, was too fast for the bazaars which and north-east of Ypres. soon fell out of the running London. A set-back followed and but little silver was offered. If the reduction in the holding of silver coin in India continues, purchases for Indian coinage are probable. Meanwhile the demands for Home and Continental mints remain important factors in the market. Stocks are not unduly large in any of the great centres and sellers, especially in America, are very cheerful.
